

Studienbegleitprogramm Rheinland-Pfalz/Saarland

für Studierende aus Asien, Afrika, Lateinamerika und Osteuropa

Program for financing career-preparatory internships and study visits in the country of origin (BPSA)

STUBE Rheinland-Pfalz provides support for a career-oriented internship or a study visit (BPSA). The BPSA programme bears the travel expenses for a study visit or an internship in the home or in a neighbouring country. The stay should enable students to implement their newly acquired expertise in their home countries. It should also provide an opportunity to get in touch with potential employers, to write an assignment relating to the home country and to visit the family.

Benefits of the BPSA programme:

Airfare: max. 1.280 Euro

Travelling allowance: 300 Euro (for double costs of living for a 4-8 weeks long stay)

Travelling allowance: 500 Euro (for double costs of living for stay that is longer than 8 weeks)

What will be funded?

A stay for preparation of a course assignment/thesis/research paper .

A stay for a completion of a career-oriented and study-related internship

Who will be funded?

Students who come from Africa, Asia, Latin America and East-Europe (so- called developing countries). You find the list if these countries here :

https://www.bmz.de/de/zentrales_downloadarchiv/Ministerium/ODA/DAC_Laenderliste_Berichtsja_hre_2014_2016.pdf)

- who study at a university in Rheinland-Pfalz or Saarland
- who don't receive a scholarship
- who haven't visited their home country in the last 18 months and have been enrolled at a university in Rheinland- Pfalz or Saarland for at least 3 semesters
- who are not able to pay the travel expenses themselves
- Who demonstrated their interest in developmental issues and have already attended STUBE seminars

Which documents have to be handed in with the application form?

- Description of the purpose of the stay (what kind of internship or research? Where?)
- Curriculum vitae in tabular form
- Report of attended lectures and seminars in university, subject of papers and presentations, internships etc.)

- Letter of recommendation from responsible teacher or professor (if you want to do an internship or want to work on your research/ thesis)
- Letter of invitation from the institute/ partner/ internship etc. where you are going to work during the stay (if available). If you want to do an internship, you need a confirmation from the responsible person at the internship
